Building on the Momentum

NAHB Professional Women in Building Council brings the power of professional women together and creates opportunities to build success.

Access to professional development, networking, business connections, mentorship and leadership opportunities keeps the wheels turning, and helps keep the number of women in the industry growing and increasing in influence every year.

From business owners, to industry experts, to students - Professional Women in Building provides resources that women affiliated with the building industry want and need!

The Professional Women in Building Council is an active public relations group for our local building industry.

We strive to foster the ideology & objectives of the building industry in the community through:

EDUCATION

Every year, PWB sponsors one or more local students with scholarships totaling $1,000.

SUPPORT OF NIBCA

The Home and Garden Show
The PWB organize the ticket sales for the event & help with the judging & raffles.

Parade of Homes
